

COASTAL LIVING®

THE MAGAZINE FOR PEOPLE WHO LOVE THE COAST

ABOUT FACE

Calling artists to the surface: the fall of 2006's "Face of the Coast" featured the work of the 22 Coastal Artists of the Month. Now, the magazine is proud to bring the next 22 artists to you. Call 800-667-5349 or visit www.coastalliving.com

TRAVEL TIPS

LOOKING FOR A GOOD BEACH DEAL

Successfully plan your spring beach vacation. In California, the legendary Hotel del Coronado in Coronado, California, stays close to the ocean. Book your stay in a private beach-side cottage, and a lesser-known California side note: its dining room also happens to be legendary. Visit www.hotelcoronado.com—Beach Breeze

LOVE TO LIVE—Stay well at Levi's Levi's, New Orleans' most beloved hotel and just steps from the city's French Quarter. A well-appointed "beachfronted" property, the 16-acre hotel is actually a converted cannery and the grounds feature a large dog park, both of which make your stay. Call 800-433-9225 or visit www.levishotel.com

MAGE—COURTESY OF MAGE—A short walk from the water in the Blue Bays area of Greenwich, Connecticut, the Homestead Inn with its dramatic facade is one of the property's 18 guest rooms. Check out the Blue Bays and the property and a pair of guests made their home just for the night. In the main hall, guests are served. These Homestead rooms have a full bath, beds and more. Visit www.mage.com or call 800-667-5349.

GREAT CATCH

Bring the Blue Bays home to your kitchen. Address and details about each of the items are listed on the page. Visit www.mage.com or call 800-667-5349.

TIKI TREASURES
